Al Faisal Holding Sponsors the 3rd Doha Conference for Development and Training and Hosts Participants for a Tour of Sheikh Faisal bin Qassim Al Thani Museum

Doha – 28 October 2025: Al Faisal Holding, one of the largest and most diversified private groups in Qatar and the region, sponsored the 3rd Doha Conference for Development and Training in collaboration with the International Federation for Training and Development, under the theme “Training for Sustainable Development and Vision 2030.” The opening ceremony was held under the patronage of H.E. Sheikh Faisal bin Qassim Al Thani, Chairman of the Board, and was attended by ambassadors, diplomatic mission representatives, ministry officials, and a distinguished group of experts and specialists from across the GCC and Arab countries.

Al Faisal Holding’s sponsorship of the event underscores its commitment to supporting initiatives that contribute to the development and empowerment of individuals and society by promoting a culture of continuous learning. This aligns with its mission to help build a community rooted in knowledge, leadership, and innovation. During the conference, participants explored the latest practices in training and institutional development, discussing their importance and effectiveness in empowering individuals and organisations, while supporting national development programmes across the region. This year’s edition welcomed approximately 470 participants representing 22 countries, marking a significant increase compared to previous conferences held in 2023 and 2024, which hosted 170 and 300 participants respectively.

On the sidelines of the conference, H.E. Sheikh Faisal bin Qassim Al Thani hosted an honorary dinner for the participants at Al Samriya Hotel, one of the company’s premier properties, known for its unique architectural design that blends tradition with modernity. During the event, Sheikh Faisal also gave guests a private tour of his personal museum, sharing his passion for collecting rare artefacts that reflect the history and heritage of the Arab and Islamic world. The tour highlighted the beauty and authenticity of Qatari culture and emphasised the importance of cultural exchange, bringing people closer through heritage and the arts.

H.E. Sheikh Mohammed bin Faisal Al Thani, Vice Chairman of Al Faisal Holding and Honorary President of the International Federation for Training and Development, stated:

“We are pleased to support the 3rd Doha Conference for Development and Training, led by Professor Dr Dera Al-Dosari, one of the pioneers in the field of training, development, and human capital. His efforts in this domain are both visible and widely recognised. This collaboration underscores Al Faisal Holding’s leading role in supporting developmental and knowledge-based initiatives in Qatar and the region, aligned with Qatar National Vision 2030, which places human development as a core pillar and enjoys strong support from our wise leadership, the Emir of the State of Qatar, His Highness Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani, may God protect him. We remain committed to supporting all efforts that enhance skills and capabilities, empowering our citizens to keep pace with progress across all fields.”

Dr Dera Al-Dosari, Conference Organiser, expressed his gratitude and appreciation to Al Faisal Holding for its support and sponsorship of the conference. He emphasised that the company’s support reflects its belief in empowering Arab institutions and developing human competencies. Al Faisal Holding’s active participation highlights its genuine commitment to promoting a culture of development and innovation in support of sustainable development across the Arab world. He also extended his appreciation to all volunteers, both Qatari and expatriate, for their full support during the three-day conference.
