

Dear Producers of Al Qahera Al Youm (Cairo Today),

In regards to the episode of Cairo Today (Al Qahera Al Youm) live TV talk show which was broadcast on Wednesday 26 March 2014, we would like to draw your attention to the fact that the prominent Qatari businessman H.E. Sheikh Faisal Bin Qassim Bin Faisal Al Thani has no political role whatsoever and also has nothing to do with the comments mentioned during the episode regarding the upcoming elections in Egypt. This seems to be the result of a mistaken identity.

H.E. Sheikh Faisal bin Qassim Al Thani is the Chairman of Qatari Businessmen Association (QBA) and the Chairman of Al Faisal Holding with several investments in Egypt. H.E. visited Egypt, on a private visit, in late February 2014 to follow up on the Company's current projects and launch new ones.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.
