

The USQBC Welcomes the Al-Faisal Holding Group as Newest Member

September 11, 2012, Washington, DC - The US-Qatar Business Council is pleased to welcome the Al-Faisal Holding Group as its newest member. With a vast international presence and with established partnerships that span the globe, the Group is one of Qatar's premier business institutions. Al-Faisal Holdings is involved in ventures across numerous sectors both in Qatar and abroad with subsidiaries in the areas of education, entertainment, hospitality, IT, construction, finance and real estate.

Founded in 1964 by His Excellency Sheikh Faisal Bin Qassim Al Thani, the current chairman and CEO, the Al-Faisal Holding Group is headquartered in Doha and has an American office in Chicago. The Group is excited to join the Council as it looks to increase its business ties with American firms, particularly in the sectors of hospitality, real estate and retail. The firm is interested in pursuing investments inside the United States and also in establishing partnerships with American firms looking to enter the Qatari market.

The US-Qatar Business Council is very pleased to work with Al-Faisal Holdings as it continues to expand its business presence into the United States.
